About the Credentialed Municipal Finance Officer (“CMFO”) Program

The CMFO Program was established to acknowledge the educational and professional accomplishments of a Municipal Finance Officer. The program is designed to promote continuing education and training of Municipal Finance Officers, so as to enable them to serve their community with confidence, skill and professionalism, as well as to be informed of the ever-changing government finance issues and mandates.

Applicants must attain points for work in categories of experience and education, endorse the Code of Ethics for Municipal Finance Officers, and fulfill the credential requirements.

Why become a Credentialed Municipal Finance Officer?

You should consider the ever-changing role of a Municipal Finance Officer, and how rapid changes in technology, financial reporting requirements, and government mandates-not to mention labor laws and post employment benefits-affect your ability to feel confident with your knowledge and performance to excel as a well-respected Municipal Finance Officer.

The key is to maintain a high degree of education and training.

This program is designed to do just that, without requiring a formal degree program, while acknowledging the accomplishment of a well trained and informed Municipal Finance Officer.

The Credentialed Municipal Finance Officer Program will assist you in understanding change, learning or enhancing skills, and reward you with confidence in performing your duties as a public official.

New York State Society of Municipal Finance Officers Code of Ethics

Statement of Intent

The Officers and Board of Directors of the New York State Society of Municipal Finance Officers (“NYSSMFO”) recognizes that there are rules and standards of ethical conduct for officers and members which, if observed, can enhance confidence in the society and promote our goals. It is for that purpose, the New York State Society of Municipal Finance Officers have adopted the following canons of ethical conduct for the officers and members of the Society.

I. Personal Standards

Municipal finance officers shall demonstrate and be dedicated to the highest ideals of honor, excellence, impartiality and integrity in all public and personal relationships to merit the respect, trust and confidence of governing officials, other public officials, employees, and of the public.

II. Responsibility as Public Officials

Municipal finance officers shall recognize and be accountable for their responsibilities as officials in the public sector striving for the highest quality of performance and counsel.

They shall exercise prudence and integrity in the management of funds in their custody and in all financial transactions.

III. Development

Municipal finance officers shall promote excellence in public service while maintaining their competence and mentoring others.

IV. Information Integrity

Municipal finance officers shall demonstrate professional integrity in the issuance and management of information. They shall abide by all approved professional practices and standards. They shall respect the trust given them in accessing information and be sensitive and responsive to inquires for that information.

V. Conflict of Interest

Municipal finance officers shall actively avoid the appearance of or the fact of conflicting interests.

I, as a Municipal Finance Officer, pledge to serve by the Code of Ethics as here stated. I further do hereby apply for the Credentialed Municipal Finance Officer designation by the Credentials Committee and I hereby attest that the following statements and presentations are accurate and true to the best of my knowledge.
